bacco Worth $2,000 Captured.

In Four Weeks Tobacco Worth $4,100 Has Been Stolen.

Two of the Men Caught While Removing the Plunder.

Detectives Weller and Grabe, of the East Sixty-seventh street station, made a good capture early this morning. They ught three men implicated in the robbery of three big tobacco firms, and repovered about $2,000 worth of tobacco.

The prisoners are John Pedcasek, a keeper, thirty-five years old, doing business at Seventy-second street and First avenue and living at 34 Taylor street, Astoria; James Clark, a truckman, twenty years old, of 1762 Second avenue, and Louis Bauman, a clerk, twenty years old, of 311 East Eighty-first street. Within the past four weeks a gang of thieves, of which the three prisoners are alleged to be members, has robbed three of the principal tobacco factories in Capt. Strauss's precinct. The thieves nave succeeded in carrying away tobacco valued altogether at $4,100. Samuel Josephs, at 3%-311 East Seventy-first street, was broken into and $2,000 worth of Sumatra leaf tobacco was carted away. The burglars had forced and made their escape with their booty, which they are said to have carried away in bags which they had brought along with them.

in bags which they had brought along with them.

Some time during Thanksgiving eve burgiars visited the tobacco factory of Mr. Hood, on Second avenue, between Seventy-eighth and Seventy-ninth streets, and stole $1,00 worth of tobacco leaf.

Last Friday night the burgiars made their third successful haul, and stole $1,00 worth of tobacco out of Silverman's tobacco factory at 296 East Seventy-second street. The burgiars effected an entrance by way of the cellar, after which they had no trouble in visiting every floor of the factory.

In no instance was the burgiary discovered until the thieves got away. Capi. Sirausa determined to break up this gaing of burgiary and since the night of the first burgiary the Captain with his two detectives has had but little rest.

All the burgiaries were laid to the

All the burglaries were laid to the members of the Horse Market Gang. The police for some days have kept a close watch on the movements of Saloon-Keeper Pedcasek, who, it was suspected, was the "receiver" for the gang.

Last night the detectives overheard a conversation which led them to suspect that Pedcasek had the tobacco, and that an effort was going to be made to have the stuff carted away from the saloon at 4 o'clock in the morning. Arrangements were at once made for the capture of the stuff and the men engaged in the moving of the stolen property.

Before 4 o'clock Welier and Grabe, with several policemen were secreted in different hallways cut of observation, but affording s clear view of what was going on in the street.

Promptly at 4 o'clock Clark, one of the prisoners, came along on truck and stopped in front of Pedcasek's saloon No.

After they had finished loading the truck and were about to start away to go to Pedcasek's home, in Astoria, the detectives appeared and arrested them and took them and the truckload of the stolen tobacco to the police station. There the two prisoners were locked up in separate cells, and the tobacco was unloaded and carried into the station-

At daybreak the detectives went to the home of the third prisoner, Bauman, against whom they claim to have evidence that he was one of the burgiars, and placed him under arrrest.

At 9 o'clock the three prioners were marched in front of Justice Burke, at the Yorkville Police Court, simply charged with being "suspicious characters." At the request of the detectives the prisoners were remanded. In leaving the court with the prisoners, Weller

Ramon V. Williams, the Mexican Vice-Consul, visited the Old Slip station this morning and looked at the package and its wrappings. He said that the printing on the paper was old Spanish, the type being similar to that used seventy-five or eightly years ago, or even in the last century, and, judging from the text, the leaves were part of a work on the "Rights of Clitzenship."

He thought it was a translation from the French. The matter was of a Socialistic character, and there were sentences relating to the heavy taxation to which the poor neonle were subjected.
